MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Joe Mannion | President/Member of the GCPOMS Executive Board / Board of Directors

Welcome to the GCPOMS The Epitaph. The official publication for the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society®.

Hello everyone, I hope you are all well. This past May we honored Cleveland Police Detective, James M. Skernivitz E.O.W. 09-03-2020. The service was well attended by family, friends and fellow officers from Ohio and Pennsylvania, who had been a part of Detective Skernivitz's career. I want to thank all the Survivors who were able to attend and support the Skernivitz family.

I want to thank the Volunteers, Friends, Trustees and Board of Directors of the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society for their dedication in "Keeping the Promise" to Never Forget our Fallen Heroes and making our Police Week, a great event. I want to personally thank Mayor Jackson and the City of Cleveland for their continued support by attending and providing the stage, chairs, and tables for this special event. Thank you to Cuyahoga County Facilities (Dan Paul). Dan and his staff had the park looking great and the electricians made sure all lights and sound connections were working properly. The above are just a few of the many who were working in the background to make sure our Memorial Service is the best in the country.

The weather was perfect, sunny, and warm. Monica Robins (Channel 3 news) sang a beautiful rendition of the United States and Canadian National Anthems. Tony Rizzo, ESPN Cleveland/Good Karma Brand radio was honored to be our emcee and has confirmed to be our Emcee for next year. Thank you to the Cleveland Police Pipes & Drums and friends from NYPD who were able to participate and played along with CPD. We missed the presence of our United States military and Canadian bands, as they were not able to attend due to the COVID-19 travel restrictions. I am looking forward to seeing them at next year's Memorial that will be held on May 20, 2022.

Thank you, Shannon Cecil, and her staff, from Mission BBQ who provided lunch to the survivors. Mission BBQ is a strong supporter of First Responders and Military causes.

The Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Service and Cleveland International Tattoo were the first events to be issued permits to proceed by the city of Cleveland. The Covid-19 restrictions for outdoor gathering events had been lifted 2 weeks prior. We did have safety protocols in place for all events.

We are grateful for all who did attend and are looking forward to seeing everyone in 2022.

We adapted to the Covid restrictions this year and decided to move forward with our Tattoo. We had to make changes due to Pipe bands being unable to attend due to travel restrictions. We had an Irish Ceilidh, which is a party with music, and dancing. The event was held at the Masonic Hall Cleveland. The venue was fabulous. We were entertained by the Cleveland Police Pipes & Drums, Brigid's Cross (Irish Celtic Band), Egan Irish Dancers and the Chardon Polka Band. All who attended had a great time singing and dancing.

Plans are already being made for next year's Memorial. Check out our web page GCPOMS.org, www.HonorOurFallen.us or Facebook page for upcoming events. Next year's Memorial Police Week will be May 15th thru 21st, 2022. Please save the dates.

Please stay safe and healthy,

Joe Mannion, President

SURVIVORS' CORNER

Candice Soine | Granddaughter of U.S. Deputy Marshal John Luses

Dearest Grandfather,

You are missed to this day. My mother always instilled in us your qualities of warmth, sense of humor and honor. They have been an inspiration to all your grandchildren.

Candice – Granddaughter

My grandfather was a laudable example of taking what life gives you and succeeding. Born 13 December 1881, John Luses (Johann Lusa) in the tiny northeastern Polish village of Antosin, he was the eldest of nine children born to farmer Johann Lusa and wife Maria. He immigrated to America on 25 February 1904 on the ship "Moltke" and landed at Ellis Island. He spoke no English when he arrived, but did speak 7 other languages, including Polish, German, Lithuanian, Russian and Yiddish. In the approximately five years, he lived in New York and New Jersey, before moving on to Cleveland, where he managed to learn English and lose most of his accent.

John and wife Mary

John's younger brother Gustav immigrated and joined him in New Jersey on the 29th of November 1907. Together they moved to Cleveland. After arriving in Cleveland, he established himself as a General Contractor and Carpenter, and built many homes in the eastern Cleveland suburb of Newburgh. One home that still stands today is the duplex he built for his wife, Mary Janda at 3352 East Blvd (now Martin Luther King Blvd). His wife Mary and young daughter Maryln continued to reside there after his death until the late 1970's.

John and daughter Maryln

The Depression ended my grandfather's career in real estate, he got a job as Superintendent of Street Sweepers (Cleveland); then Trolley car Conductor (also in Cleveland) and finally becoming a US Deputy Marshal. During his time as a General Contractor, he met my grandmother's (Mary Janda) family. His wife Mary, was born to Bohemian emigrants. She was one of 5 daughters. Although she was 18 years younger, they fell in love and married in 1919. They had one child, my mother, Maryln, in 1924.

Maryln met her husband Clayton Soine during WWII at the Stage Door Canteen in 1945, and they were married 25 February 1946. They then moved to northwestern part of Washington State, and we all reside there today. They had four children, me, then my fraternal twin siblings, and a second brother born in 1959. Clayton passed in 1993 and Maryln in 2011.

When John died, he was survived by his almost 80-year-old mother Maria, still living in Antosin, Poland. She died in 1944 just before the Russian invasion that forced the rest of the family to flee to Hamburg, Germany. He was also survived by his wife Mary and daughter Maryln, also his brothers, Gustav (U.S.), and Albert (Poland), and his sisters, all living in either Poland or Germany, Anna (Gustav Neff), Karoline Lusa, Wilhelmine (Georg Both), Luise (Siegismund Bayer), and Maria (Georg Kausch). He was preceded in death by his father, Johann Lusa and his sister Minna Lusa.

My grandmother and mother shaped our view of John. He was well-respected in his community. He was a loving husband.

U.S. Marshals Service Line of Duty Deaths from the Northern District of Ohio

U.S. Deputy Marshal John Luses | U.S. Deputy Marshal Hugh Brantly

John Luses (EOW: 9/08/1938) and Hugh J. Bartley (EOW: 6/30/1921) are two Deputy U.S. Marshals from the Northern District of Ohio who were killed in the line of duty. Deputy Marshal Hugh Bartley was assigned to the Toledo Office of the U.S. Marshals Service, and Deputy Marshal John Luses was assigned to the Cleveland Office.

Deputy U. S. Marshal John Luses

(EOW: 9/08/1938) was killed in the line of duty while transporting a prisoner from Detroit, MI to Pittsburgh, PA. The vehicle in which Deputy U.S. Marshal Luses and a guard were riding was involved in an accident as they were nearing their destination. The trailer of a heavy truck jack-knifed and swung into the path of their auto. Deputy U.S. Marshal Luses died on September 9, 1938 in Sewickley Valley, PA. He was survived by his wife Mary and his daughter Mary Alice Luses Soine, 2 brothers and 6 sisters. His daughter passed away on March 10, 2011. Survivors include 2 granddaughters and 2 grandsons: Candice L. Soine, John C. Soine, Robin M. Soine, and Phillip C. Soine.

Deputy U.S. Marshal Bartley (EOW: 6/30/1921) was appointed on August 4, 1913 and reassigned on April 1, 1915. His tour of duty ended eight years later when he died of internal injuries when an automobile in which he was a passenger swerved and went off the road in an attempt to avoid another car and overturned upon impact in Oregon Township (Ohio). The driver had been traveling at a high rate of speed to enable Deputy U. S. Marshal Bartley to comply with a court order to serve subpoenas immediately following a criminal indictment. The defendants were due in court on June 27, 1921. Deputy U.S. Marshal Bartley was fatally injured while on his way to serve the subpoenas on the defendants and died three days later.

Deputy U.S. Marshal Hugh ("Hughie") Bartley, born in 1865, was to have retired on July 24, 1921, less than one month later. He had been the Deputy Marshal in Charge of the Toledo U.S. Marshal's Office for 8 years prior to his death. He had a reputation for being an efficient and conscientious public servant who won praise for the performance of his duties and for fair treatment of prisoners.

Deputy Marshal Bartley was survived by his wife and his only son, Robert F. Bartley, who was a Toledo Police Officer before becoming any attorney.

Robert Bartley, a graduate of the University of Toledo was appointed as a Police Officer in March 1912 and served 11 years as a Patrol Officer, Sergeant, and Sergeant Detective. He resigned from the Toledo Police Department in 1923 on the day he received his law degree. He practice law for 36 years in Lucas County and was recognized as a talented attorney with a flair for writing. Attorney Bartley, known for his abilities as a wordsmith, authored a 1,184 page novel entitled QUIDNUNC (which means "what and now"). Attorney Bartley retired from the practice of law in 1955 after 36 years as an attorney. He was preceded in death by his wife. They had no children of their own, and Attorney Bartley passed away in 1975.

HEROES AMONG US

THE U.S. MARSHALS SERVICE: JUSTICE, INTEGRITY, SERVICE

Mary A. Lentz | Survivor / Secretary / Member of the GCPOMS Executive Board / Board of Directors / The Epitaph Editor

The Elliott Law Enforcement Tradition is not One, but Two Distinct Legacies of service to the safety of Northern Ohio communities. Deputy U.S. Marshal John Elliott, U.S. Marshal Peter Elliott's father, was a Deputy U.S. Marshal for 23 years from 1967-1990 in the Northern District of Ohio, where his son serves as U.S. Marshal. John inspired Pete to follow in his footsteps and was a role model and mentor. One Elliott's legacy in law enforcement cannot be told without the other. Both have served with distinction, and both highly respected.

Deputy U.S. Marshal John Elliott served in the U.S. Navy from 1954-1958, and from 1958-1967 he served as a Deputy Sheriff for Cuyahoga County. He also played the bag pipes in the Cleveland Police Pipes and Drums and remained a proud member after his retirement from the Marshals Service.

Deputy U.S. Marshal John Elliott's duties included, but were definitely not limited to, arresting Jane Fonda and Sam Shepard. He began the Federal Witness Protection Program in Northern Ohio in the early 1970s during his assignment to the Organized Crime Unit of the Marshals Service and also provided security for Federal Judges in the Northern District of Ohio Courts.

Deputy U.S. Marshal Elliott played a key role in the Cleveland mob wars and safely placed protected witnesses, informants and their families in new locations with new identities. This U.S. Marshals Service Program continues to this day. Deputy U.S. Marshal Elliott's investigations brought many mob cases to trial. He was also known for his reliability and high ethical standards.

John K. "Pete" Elliott passed away in March 2020. He was a loving husband to his wife Clorinda for 57 years, father, grandfather, son, and brother. His life, which was rooted in family and God, was filled with love and laughter. He was a strong support not only to his family, but also to his police family and was known as a kind man with a big heart. In memory of Deputy U.S. Marshal John K. Elliot, the conference room at the Offices of the U.S. Marshal of Northern Ohio in the Federal Court House in Cleveland has been named in his honor for his dedicated service to the Northern District in Ohio.

U.S. Marshal Peter Elliott, Northern District of Ohio

U.S. Marshal Peter Elliott has been the U.S. Marshal for the Northern District of Ohio since 2003 following unanimous confirmation by the United States Senate. He is the longest serving U.S. Marshal in the history of Ohio. The Northern District of Ohio covers approximately half of the State of Ohio, including 40 counties from the Pennsylvania border to Indiana. The Federal Courts for the Northern District are located in Cleveland, Youngstown, Akron and Toledo.

As U.S. Marshal, Pete Elliott's responsibilities include leading and directing his staff in the protection and security of the United States Courts, management of prisoners, execution of Federal Court orders, and all other law enforcement activities for the Northern District of Ohio. His staff of Deputy Marshals have arrest powers anywhere in the United States and also travel overseas to return arrestees for federal crimes committed in this jurisdiction.

As U.S. Marshal, Pete Elliott has created many new and innovative programs to advance the mission of the U.S. Marshals Service and to increase collaboration among federal, state and local agencies, as well as involving the community in making the streets safer. Marshal Elliott created the Northern Ohio Violent Fugitive Task Force which has arrested over 50,000 fugitives since the Task Force began in 2003. Marshal Elliott created the Task Force in memory of his friend Cleveland Police Patrol Officer Wayne A. Leon (End of Watch: 6/25/2000 because the apprehension of fugitives is a particularly dangerous aspect of law enforcement. The Task Force is intended to limit that danger through collaboration of law enforcement agencies. All members of the Task Force have federal arrest powers, including members from all law enforcement agencies. The Task Force includes over 125 partner agencies and more than 350 law enforcement officers. Marshal Elliott has assisted numerous U.S. Marshals Service offices across the U.S. to establish Violent Fugitive Task Forces modeled on the Cleveland Task Force.

Marshal Elliott also created the Fugitive Safe Surrender Program which consists of law enforcement partners and the U.S. Marshals Service of Northern Ohio who work in collaboration with the faith-based community to encourage fugitives to surrender at a local place of worship. This highly successful program has been duplicated across the United States, leading to the peaceful surrender of over 70,000 fugitives. The Cold Case Unit, also created by Marshal Elliott has tracked down and arrested some of the longest wanted fugitives by the U.S. Marshals Service. In 2020, he created the Missing Child Unit and the first Fugitive Safe Surrender Hotline, the phone version of the Fugitive Safe Surrender program. Operation Safety Net focuses on the crime of human trafficking.

U.S. Marshal Pete Elliott began his career in law enforcement as a local law enforcement officer working undercover narcotics operations before becoming a Deputy U.S. Marshal for the Northern District of Ohio. In 1992, he joined the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms as a Special Agent investigating terrorism, firearms, and explosive cases prior to his appointment as the U.S. Marshal for the Northern District of Ohio. He is the recipient of numerous national and local awards for his accomplishments and stellar service to law enforcement and the communities he serves. His extraordinary leadership and management skills and his collaborative community involvement with law enforcement agencies have proven to be innovative and successful ways for the safety and betterment of our communities. He uses his management and leadership skills to hire his staff and assign them to the positions that utilize their particular skills and expertise. The atmosphere of his Office demonstrates the collaborative cooperation he has fostered among his staff, and it is evident that they respect his expertise, abilities and dedication to the mission of the U.S. Marshals Service.

Through his establishment of internship opportunities and the encouragement of young people to enter the law enforcement field and in particular the U.S. Marshals Service, the challenges and continual evolving of law enforcement on a daily basis, Marshal Elliott is expanding the pool of future law enforcement officers.

U.S. Marshal Pete Elliott is well-respected for his intelligence and integrity, expansive knowledge of law enforcement, laws, procedure, policy and leadership skills. His respect for his staff and members of law enforcement who serve in collaborative roles with the U.S.

Marshals Service is evidenced in the return respect they have for him. Marshall Elliott is well-grounded, a role model and mentor for his staff, and a law enforcement leader whose expertise provides him with the ability to acknowledge social change and the need for law enforcement to meet that change by improving the communities he serves. There is a civil environment of professionalism in his Office, and his staff are cordial and efficient and wholeheartedly dedicated.
