

THE EPITAPH

Serving the law enforcement community of Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, Medina & Northern Summit Counties

VOL 3, NO 2 • May 2020

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Joe Mannion | President/Member of the GCPOMS Executive Board/Board of Directors

Welcome to the GCPOMS The Epitaph. The official publication for the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society®.

This year is our 35th Anniversary of The Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society® (GCPOMS®). I want to again, thank everyone who throughout the years has supported and continues to support GCPOMS®. We are living in an unprecedented time. Who would have ever thought this would have happened in our lifetime, a virus that would spread worldwide and change our everyday lives. As a result of this world wide pandemic we had to cancel this year's 35th anniversary Peace Officers Memorial events. This had to be done due to the Governor's orders of social distancing and health safety concerns for everyone involved. GCPOMS Board Members are still going to honor our Fallen during Police Week. John Dean will be organizing the Grave Marker Event on Saturday, May 9, 2020. John is making a distribution list for volunteers regarding pick-up times for the markers, keeping social distancing in mind. Flags will be lowered to half-staff in honor of our Fallen. A wreath will be placed at the Memorial, which is open to everyone. During Police Week blue lights will be shining on the Memorial site to let everyone know that this pandemic crisis will not keep us from Honoring our Fallen and from Keeping the Promise to Never Forget our Fallen Heroes®. I wish everyone to stay healthy and safe during these trying times.

The history of The Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society® all began following the funeral of a fellow officer in 1984. A handful of police officers in attendance felt the need to find a way to honor police officers that have died in the line of duty and to celebrate the law enforcement profession. There was a need to find a way to do this away from the tragedy that surrounds the death of a police officer lost in the line of duty. Those officers, Tom Armelli (Cleveland PD), Charles W. Lane, Jr. (Cleveland PD), Tom McGuire (Middleburg Heights PD), Jack McCaulley (Eastlake PD), and Jay Murtaugh (Cleveland PD), decided to meet and do something about it. In 1985, the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society® was formed. The Society adopted the motto "In Honore Casorum", which is Latin for "Honor Our Fallen".

On May 15th 1986 the First Annual Police Memorial Day Parade made its way up West 3rd Street from the old Municipal Stadium to Lakeside Avenue, ending at Ontario St., where everyone gathered on the Justice Center Plaza for our first Memorial Service. Over the next few years our event grew and evolved and we set our sights on a permanent memorial to honor those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice in the service of their community.

Volunteers worked hard to establish a sound foundation based on our mission and goals. Countless hours were spent identifying those eligible to be placed on the Memorial as we worked toward our objective - building a permanent Memorial. This goal became a reality when the Memorial Society formed a partnership with many business and community leaders in the Greater Cleveland area.

Cleveland Police Chief Edward P. Kovacic, after witnessing the camaraderie demonstrated during the 5th Annual Police Memorial Commemoration in May 1990 and the dedication of the Society's volunteers, offered to assist. Chief Kovacic was particularly impressed when the Chicago Police Emerald Society Pipes & Drums was welcomed to a rousing standing ovation by the 500 guests in attendance at the Friday evening dinner at Cleveland's famous Hofbräuhaus. They arrived late after helping to pay final honors to two Chicago police officers who were killed in the line of duty, and buried earlier that day. He quickly arranged a meeting the following Tuesday with Mr. Samuel H. Miller, philanthropists and friend of the police.

Samuel H. Miller came to Chief Kovacic's office the day after being called by the chief and offered his friendship and support in getting our Memorial built.

We will never forget!

"Keeping the Promise to Never Forget our Fallen Heroes"®

BADGES OF COURAGE

Mary A. Lentz | Survivor/Secretary/Member of the GCPOMS Executive Board/Board of Directors/ The Epitaph Editor

As we honor our 190 Fallen Officers whose names are engraved on the GPOMS Memorial Monument Walls, we are grateful for the ultimate sacrifice made by each Officer. This year marks the 35th Anniversary of the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society which has pledged to Never Forget our Fallen Heroes. We also remember their Survivors in a special way. The life and End of Watch of each Fallen Hero are memorialized as we relive the legacy through the cherished memories and inspiration their lives provide us. We all share the loss and want the Survivors to know they do not grieve the loss of their loved ones alone. Each Fallen Officer is commemorated by their families, friends, fellow law enforcement officers, and the public who gather at the Memorial during Police Week to preserve the memory of each Officer. We will never forget.

The 190 Fallen Officers whose names are on the GCPOMS Memorial represent fifty-six police departments and law enforcement agencies in Greater Cleveland.

We express our gratitude and appreciation for law enforcement, along with all first responders and medical teams who are caring for the victims of the Covid-19 virus and for the researchers who seek a vaccine.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

His leadership, guidance and influence quickly got the project moving. “Sam” as he insisted we call him, told us how he respected the police and was particularly influenced by a kindly old police sergeant who took him under his wing after an incident in his neighborhood. Reminding us of a good lesson for life, and especially for the police, “You never know who you touch with each act of kindness.”

Energized by Sam’s involvement, the Society’s volunteers got moving in high gear...conducting the research and writing the stories of the 142 officers known at the time to have died in the line of duty; site selection, planning and design of the memorial, fund raising and a host of other tasks. Fortunately, we got help from our friends.

On May 15th, 1992, during our 7th annual Memorial service, ground was broken for the construction of the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial® in Huntington Park, across from the Justice Center at West 3rd Street and Lakeside Avenue. The following year, on May 14, 1993, the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial® was dedicated.

In 2010, The Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial®, with the continued support of law enforcement, business and community leaders has completed an extensive renovation of the 17-year-old Monument and surroundings. Over 60 donors became sponsors of the project, and hundreds of individuals contributed to this capital improvement. The support of the entire community ensures that the Memorial continues to Honor our Fallen Officers in a grand, yet dignified manner. The Memorial was re-dedicated on May 21, 2010 at our 25th anniversary and Memorial Ceremony.

As the years went on we discovered more names were researched by many departments within our five county area. These names were not included in our initial research, construction and dedication. These additional names were added honorably throughout the years.

The Memorial was expanded in 2018 when the addition of two additional granite walls were constructed. We now honor 190 officers on our Memorial. Today, the Greater Cleveland Peace Officers Memorial Society® is an all-volunteer organization. I want to thank Sgt. Bill Sweeney (retired Cleveland State University Police) and Lt. John Paskan (retired Ohio State Highway Patrol) for getting me involved in such a great organization 27 years ago.

I also want to personally thank, all past and present Board Members and volunteers for their dedicated service to GCPOMS®. On behalf of our current Board I am extending a sincere invitation to all law enforcement officers that serve in our six county area Cuyahoga, Lake, Geauga, Northern Summit, Medina and Lorain, including active and retired, to join as a Member and support our services through volunteering.

Until we meet again, Stay Safe,
Joe Mannion, President
